CoStar Salutes Dallas/Ft. Worth CoStar Power Broker Award Winners

Top Commercial Real Estate Firms and Brokers Recognized for Highest Volume of Sales and Leasing Deals in 2008

This week, CoStar announced the winners of the CoStar Power Broker Awards, recognizing the "best of the best" in commercial real estate brokerage, spotlighting the U.S. firms and individual brokers who closed the highest transaction volume in commercial property sales and leases in 2008.

"CoStar Group is very proud to recognize the commercial real estate brokerage firms and individual brokers who truly excelled and achieved remarkable sales and leasing success in 2008 despite the difficult economic circumstances," said CoStar Group President and CEO Andrew C. Florance. "We congratulate all the award winners on their impressive professional accomplishment."

Now in their seventh year, CoStar Power Broker Awards are presented to the top firms and individuals in each market (including Dallas/Ft. Worth) who achieve outstanding volume of property sales and leasing transactions in office, industrial and retail properties as reflected in CoStar's database as of year-end 2007. Individual brokers are recognized in the following categories: Top Office Leasing, Top Industrial Leasing, Top Retail Leasing and Top Sales. In addition, Top Leasing and Top Sales CoStar Power Broker Awards are presented to brokerage firms in recognition of the volume of property sales and leasing transactions in office, industrial and retail properties they generate companywide.

This year, 1,352 brokerage firms and 2,895 dealmakers are being recognized as CoStar Power Broker Award winners. CoStar Power Broker Award winners are based on transaction data in CoStar's commercial real estate database, the largest, independently researched database of commercial real estate property available online. Information in CoStar's database is verified and continuously updated by more than 900 research analysts - comprising the largest commercial real estate research operation of its kind. CoStar's Power Broker Awards are being co-sponsored by Real Estate Forum magazine, with the winners showcased prominently in upcoming editions of the print publication and online version of GlobeSt.com.
